Berlin's Federation of Disability and Rehabilitation - Sport (BSB)

The Berlin's Federation of Disability and Rehabilitation - Sport (German "BSB": "Behinderten- und Rehabilitations- Sportverband Berlin e.V.") supports and promotes disability sport in Berlin since 1952. As the association that coordinates rehabilitation in Berlin, the BSB plays an important role in the sporting landscape of Berlin: In cooperation with all its member associations and clubs, the BSB has a large panel of offers in many types of rehabilitation sport and functional training.

Through the organization of lots of international sport competitions as well as charitable events, the BSB is pursuing the goal of giving everyone the possibility to do organized sport. The BSB is very active in mass and recreational sports, promoting all types of Disability Sport in Berlin and trying to develop less popular disciplines like Karate, Wheelchair Basketball or Goalball. With its Campaign "Inclusion through Sport", the BSB provides financial help to sport associations introducing inclusive projects for its members.

The BSB is responsible for the training and certification of trainers, in the field of disability sport, in Berlin. 1500 trainers are registered and work for the clubs in Berlin.

The BSB is also a major actor in competitive sport in Berlin. The participation to the Paralympics is the dream of every athlete with disability. The BSB helps all of its sportsmen and women to achieve this goal, organizing trainings and competitions, financing regional and national trainers and working hard on talent search programs. In the past, plenty of athletes from Berlin were able to get medals in the Paralympic Games and in international competitions.
